★ Understanding Laws & Rules

The Legal Help Centers (see above) are the best resource for people without lawyers. There are other resources for understanding the laws and rules of the Court:

- 1. Handbook for Pro Se Litigants The Handbook is a procedural guide for people who are representing themselves. It was prepared by the Court and is available at the Clerk's Office or on the Court's website at: https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/pro-se-handbook/.
- 2. Legal Research Guide for Pro Se Litigants The Guide provides information for people who are representing themselves about how to do legal research, like finding statutes and decisions in other cases. It was prepared by the Justice & Diversity Center and is available at the Legal Help Centers and at: https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/pro-se-litigants/legal-help-center-templates-packets/.
- 3. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure These Rules explain the procedures from filing through trial for all civil cases in the federal courts across the country, and are available at: https://www.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/rules-of-civil-procedure.pdf.
- 4. Civil Local Rules The Civil Local Rules follow the same numbering as the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, but generally provide more detail. They apply in this District only, and are available at: https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/rules/civil-local-rules/.

★ How to Complete the Notice Template

- 1. Fill in the case information On the top of the first page, write your name, address, and check the box for the division to which your case has been assigned. Write in the plaintiff's and defendant's names in the middle of the page. To the right of the party names, write in the case number and the judge's name. Then, write in your name, fill in the case number, check the box to show which of your information is being updated, and write in the judge's name.
- 2. Say when your information changed On Line 10, write in the date your contact information changed.
- 3. Provide the updated information Check the box to show what contact information changed, and write in the new address, email or phone number.
- 4. Review and sign your Notice Read your Notice, make sure all the blanks are filled in and confirm that all the information is correct. Each person submitting the Notice must sign it.
- 5. Prepare the Certificate of Service Each document that you file must be "served" on each other party, usually by sending it in the mail. A Certificate of Service is a paper that lets the Court know that you served a certain document. To prepare the Certificate, follow the instructions on it. If all parties (including you) are registered ECF filers, you do not need to prepare or file a Certificate of Service.

★ FILING & SERVING YOUR NOTICE

- 1. Copies Make three copies. Once you have completed and signed your Notice and Certificate (if needed), make three copies of each. On one copy of the documents, write "Chambers" on the top in pen. (If there is more than one plaintiff or defendant, you will also need one additional copy for each of them.) ECF users do not need to include a chambers copy. See Civil Local Rule 5-1(d)(7).
- 2. Serve the Notice Be sure that the Notice and Certificate are served on each other party. If you are filing electronically, your document is considered served when filed. See Civil Local Rule 5-1(h)(1).
- 3. File the Notice Deliver or mail the original plus two copies of the Notice and Certificate to the Clerk's Office at the federal courthouse where the Judge hearing your case is located. The Clerk will take the original and the copy marked "Chambers" of each document. The other copy is for you to keep after it is stamped by the Clerk.
 - a. File by mail If you file by mail, include a self-addressed, stamped envelope so that the Clerk can send a copy of each document back to you.
 - b. File electronically If you are an electronic filer, follow the instructions for electronic filing, which can be found here: https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/cases-e-filing/cm-ecf/.
 - c. Register to become an e-filer The registration information to become an e-filer can be found here: https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/cases-e-filing/cm-ecf/setting-up-my-account/e-filing-self-registration-instructions-for-pro-se-litigants/.

★ STAY UP TO DATE

- 1. Communications Check your mail and tell the Court if you move. You must file a new notice with the Clerk right away if your mailing address, email, or phone number changes or you may miss important deadlines, causing you to lose your case.
- 2. Tracking Keep track of your case. A list of the documents that have been filed, and (usually) the documents themselves can be viewed online. Review the Pro Se Handbook Chapter 7 and contact the Legal Help Center to learn to access documents.
- 3. Guidance Visit the Legal Help Center for more information about what happens next.
